

Explore India – Descriptive & Tagline

From the moment you step off the plane and into the warm Indian air, you will feel a joyful flutter in your heart, a calmness in your mind, and an awakening of your senses. Fresh fragrance lingers in the air and as you breathe it in you are pleasantly roused as only welcoming scents can do. As the divine, sweet sounds of the music of India kisses your ears you will be swept away by an indescribable pleading from your heart to never be without such enchanting sounds again. Your eyes are delighted at the kaleidoscope of colour which teasingly sways for them at every turn on this captivating journey. Your taste buds will be privy to some of the most ancient secrets of cuisine as you savour your way through each day, always wondering how tomorrow could be any better... but then it is. This journey will quiet your mind, rejuvenate your spirit, rouse your senses, and stir your soul to the point that you will feel as though you have been born again as a receptor of everything splendid and divine.

Explore India and feel the magic that will change your life